PELL IS REAL ESTATE LAWN TENNIS WINNER

Championship Title in Final Round.

TENANTS CHEER AS LANDLORDS STRUGGLE

R. Holt Is Victor in Class B Singles Played at Forest Hills by Land Salesmen.

By FRED HAWTHORNE.

If your landlord hobbles around to your fiat on crutches next week when he demands the rent, or if his face exthe demands the rent, or if his face expresses terrible agony every time he leads his back or raises his arms above his head, don't think he is the victim of remores and is going to cut your small in half. Nothing of the kind, he's simply been playing in the annual law tennis tournament of the Real Eriste Board of New York and has not yet got the kinks out of his muscles.

The real estate men went out to the West Side Tennis Club, at Forest Hills, Long Island, yesterday, and engaged in furious strife on the clay courts. The titles in Class A and B singles were won by Theodore Roosevelt Pell and R. Helt, respectively. Darkness put a stop to the doubles competition, with Benjamin M. Phillips and Stanley issues and Roy D. Richey and E. A. Ashley in the final brackets in Class A and four pairs out to the semi-finals in Class B.

The day was balmy enough to lure

Resiestate, real estate! Rah, rah, rah!"

Pell did not gain his trophy without puting in a busy afternoon on the courts. His first opponent was the redeubtable Benjamin M. Phillips, who always manages to give the best of always manages to give the best of always manages to give the best of them a run for their money. Although defeated at 6-2, 6-1, Phillips made the match a stirring one by his great his match as tirring one by his great ballity to get his racquet on the ball, so matter where Pell placed his shots. Without even stopping to ask the time of day, Pell took the court with Stanley M. Isaacs and sent the latter down to defeat by a score of 6-0, 6-0. The famous Pell backhand stroke was working with great speed in this match and Isaacs found it almost impossible to stop the shots that Pell sent down

Without losing a set, defeating, in turn, G. P. Millard, F. V. Calder, Le Roy Coventry and Thurman Lee, the latter # 5-1, 8-0, in the final round.

In the mean time, while the lot sell-ing business in this city and suburbs was at a standstill, the real estate rac-quet men were fighting it out in the toubles. Pell tried to win another cup in the Class A doubles, paired with James G.

Caffin, but was defeated in the semi-taal round by Richey and E. A. Ashley, its match being decided in one set be-mass of darkness. The winners, whom Pell halled as the "Gold Dust Twins," Casned up in convincing attle by a tesned up in convincing style by a tore of 6-3.

Richey and Pell had several slashing tolleying duels from mid-court, with ahley and Coffin doing the heavy work from back-court. The winners had pre-to-saily defeated Harry Parker and S. Felletton Wasse. Fullerton Weaver in a gruelling strug-fle at 6-3, 8-6, although Weaver sterward admitted he had tried his less to talk the opposing pair out of 28 march
